

MOSAIC THEATER HIGH SCHOOL PLAYWRITING CONTEST

Want to write for TV someday? Did you know that Tony-nominated playwright, Dominique Morisseau, is a writer on Showtime's Shameless?!

All 9-12th graders enrolled in Washington, D.C. and Prince George's County public and charter schools are eligible to submit a play! Cash prizes up to $300!

With local celebrity judges Angela Stribling (WHUR), John Stoltenberg (DC Metro Theatre Arts), Amy Austin (Theatre Washington), and Mister Fitzgerald (DC Actor). Emceed by Michael Quander (WUSA9) and featuring directing by Dyllon Burnside from Netflix's Pose.

Students can submit a play in one or more of the following categories (but they can only win in one category):

Monologues, Short Multi-Person Play, and Long Multi-Person Play

A 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place cash prize winner will be selected in each category

Online submissions are open NOW!

We will be accepting submissions until December 15th, 2020 at 11:59pm EST.

Information and guidelines can be found at www.mosaictheater.org/contest
